

ADOPTIVE PROFILE

Jhonna & Jasmine

Age: 11 & 13

Race: African American

Date of Profile: April 2009

These entertaining sisters, Jasmine and Jhonna, are ready to thrive in their new forever family! Older sister Jasmine is an attractive, reserved young lady of 13 years. She has bright eyes and a lovely smile, even with her braces. Jasmine loves basketball and exploring the teenage experience with her new MP3 player and cell phone. She also has a passion for reading, especially biographies. Jasmine is a happy girl, who has made great strides in overcoming issues. Jasmine benefits from an IEP (Individualized Educational Plan). She is on medication and works with a behavioral specialist.

Jhonna is a lively, affectionate 11 year old with a ready smile. She loves to work with her hands and is very talented in math. She can be difficult to keep focused and her speech is somewhat difficult to understand, but she talks freely and excitedly. Jhonna doesn't know a stranger as she is very outgoing, and she enjoys performing before an audience. She is responding well to her therapies and making progress. She does have some struggles. Jhonna benefits from an IEP and is in a mainstream classroom for a couple of periods every day. She is on medication, and as well, works with a behavioral specialist.

Both girls are healthy and their immunizations are up to date. They are legally free for adoption.
