

Mike & Jenny

Dear Birthparents,

We respect you and the choices you must make to provide your child the miracle of life. We admire the courage, selflessness, and love in your heart as you consider an adoption plan.

We are pleased that you are taking the time to examine our album and learn more about us. On the following pages you will see we have many blessings to share and an abundance of love to give. In fact, among the gifts we have to offer a child are devotion of family, a faithful marriage of 19 years, and unconditional love.

As you consider trusting us to be the adoptive parents of your child, rest assured we are able to provide a safe and nurturing environment to grow and learn. Jenny is currently a stay at home mom with our son Luke who we adopted in 2012. Mike works in a sales position that allows him to spend the afternoons and evenings at home with Jenny and Luke. We feel our first priority in parenting is personally providing for the child's daily needs.

We are enthusiastic about openness in adoption and would like to discuss your wishes for future involvement as you follow your child's walk through life.

Sincerely,
Mike and Jenny

Fun Family Facts

Openness

We have learned that openness means opening our hearts and lives to a developing relationship.

Openness is beneficial to everyone involved in the adoption; the child, the birthparents, and us.

Views on Adoption

Adoption is one way God creates families through the miracle of life, given by the birthparents, and commitment given by the adoptive parents. We see adoption as our opportunity to share our love for family, and we respect the love and courage the birthparents display in choosing life through adoption.

Views on Parenting, Education & Discipline

Parenting, education, and discipline are successfully accomplished through partnership and teamwork. Our child is our first priority and receives our full attention in all matters of his life. As parents, we are the first teachers of our child. Education starts at home and continues at school with the parents taking an active role. Discipline should be consistent, respectful of the child's age and teach the difference between right and wrong. Discipline should be constructive, maintaining the dignity of the child at all times.

Family Life

We have been married 19 years and have a strong relationship built on love, friendship, and trust. Our families are one of the greatest gifts we have to offer a child. There is guidance from parents, support from siblings, and laughter all around. We can promise our children will know love and happiness, fun and laughter, adventure and security.

Religious Life

We are a Christian family celebrating faith in our daily lives, giving thanks for our blessings, and worshipping God. As a strong Christian family, we are dependent on God's plans for us and confident in His love and grace.

Child Care Plans

Jenny is a stay at home mom with our son, Luke. We feel our first priority in parenting is personally providing for the child's daily needs. Jenny will continue to stay home with our children.

Our Home

We live in a ranch style home with 3 bedrooms in a large neighborhood with friendly people and plenty of sidewalks for wagon rides. Our family room is a spacious area for gathering together, and it is definitely our playroom. We have a fenced backyard equipped with a sandbox, toddler swing set, water tables, kid pools and sprinklers.
