

Trevor and Angie

Hello,

Thank you for taking the time to learn about us. We know this is a difficult time for you, but we admire your strength, courage and love, in considering an adoption plan for your child. We are honored you are considering including our family in your journey. Please know, should you choose to give us the gift of adopting your child, we promise to love your child unconditionally in a warm, safe, caring home full of laughter, affection and respect. We know you're looking for a wonderful home for your child and if you select us, we are so excited and ready to become parents.

Trevor: A business manager who is compassionate and loves sports and spending time with friends and family

Angie: A school counselor who is loving and enjoys cooking and spending time with friends and family

Why Adoption

We know that adoption is a precious blessing. When I (Angie) was five, my mom married a wonderful man who chose to love me...and adopt my twin sister and I. I have always known what a gift that was and can't wait to love our child the same way I was loved. Our child will always know you loved them. We will be open and honest, when questions arise. We promise your child will know, just as Angie does, the special gift adoption is to a child and our family.

Our Family

We enjoy outdoor activities and trying new restaurants, travel destinations and adventures. We also love spending time at home relaxing, talking and watching TV. Both of our parents live close, as well as our siblings and nieces and nephews, so we spend a lot of time with them, which we love! We have a home in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan that we also enjoy with both of our families. We also have a wonderful church family and community.

Parenting and Childcare

As our child grows, we will support their academic, emotional and spiritual development. We believe it's important to show affection with each other and will do the same with our child. We will use techniques like time-outs, consequences, and privilege removal. For child care, the time will be split with my mom a couple days a week and a licensed daycare until they go to preschool. Our child will attend school at the district Angie works at.

Our Home

Our home is a three bedroom, two bath ranch home, with one story and a two car garage. We have a deck and a nice-sized back yard that will be perfect for our child to play in. We work hard to make sure our home looks and feels welcoming to our family, friends and neighbors.

Our Faith

Our church is a huge part of our lives. We attend small groups, Sunday school and church every week. We have a strong faith in God and seek His guidance with everything. We will always encourage our child to maintain values that align with our Christian ideals, but will also encourage them to explore their own beliefs.

Our Holidays

We celebrate the holidays with both sides of our families. We have many family traditions, including going around the table at Thanksgiving dinner to say what we are thankful for, attending candlelight Christmas Eve services at church, and going to Silver Dollar City to see the Christmas lights. We can't wait for our child to experience the fun we have when we celebrate the holidays!

Openness

We understand the importance of open adoption and are happy to share photos, letters and e-mails. We want you to feel comfortable with us and will respect the level of openness you choose, as well. We would love to meet you and are willing to discuss future phone calls and visits.
