

Brian and Sara

Dear Birth Parents,

Thank you for taking the time to review our adoption profile. We sincerely appreciate it and we hope that what we've provided will give you a glimpse of who we are and what we are like. As we write this letter to you, we recognize that you are likely one of the strongest, bravest people we will ever meet. We cannot image the process you've been through. We want you to know that we have prayed continually and asked God to guide us and lead us to the right family. We believe that He is directing our path as well as yours. We also want you to know that we are open to developing a healthy relationship with you through this process and beyond placement`. We understand that a healthy, open relationship among everybody involved is what will be best for your child. We made the decision to adopt a child about a year ago. We have been trying to have a baby naturally for about four years. We have endured several miscarriages that have been heartbreaking. Last year we sought God about other options. Adoption quickly became the direction in which we knew God was leading us. Since then we have only become more confident that this is how we get to grow our family. We feel very blessed to be able to provide a warm, love-filled home for a child.

We hope that as you read through our profile, you feel the love that fills our lives. We love each other deeply, but beyond that we have the most amazing families and friends. They are kind, loving, and supportive and they are beyond excited to be a part of our adoption journey.

Sincerely,

Brian and Sara

Brian (By Sara)

There are so many words I could use to describe Brian. A few of them would be kind, loving, intelligent, hardworking, and honest. I waited many years for a wonderful man. I found exactly what I was looking for! He will be the most amazing father.

Occupation: Attorney

Hobbies: learning about history and current events

Sara (By Brian)

Sara has many wonderful qualities! Among them are a soft heart and compassion for others, a nurturing and helping spirit, a fierce commitment to her work and a strong sense of humor. She will make a wonderful and "cool" mother who will be nurturing and fun! I am truly blessed to have her as my wife.

Occupation: Child Psychologist

Hobbies: working out, knitting, travelling

Openness

We understand that some birth parents want relationships with the families they enter into this unique relationship with. We want you to know that we are very open to creating the best situation for everybody. If you choose, we are open to sending updates and pictures. Our plan is to always tell your child the truth about who they are and where they came from.

Family Ties

Family is everything to us. We spend a lot of our time with our parents as well as with Sara's siblings, brothers in law, and nieces and nephews. We both come from close families and desire for our children to be raised knowing and loving our families.

Our plan is to be parents who love unconditionally while also setting appropriate boundaries. We highly value education and will work hard to provide the best education possible.

Parenting

Childcare Plans

After a significant maternity/paternity leave, our plan is to utilize a local faith based daycare a few days a week. Paternal grandparents will also provide care a few times a week.

Our Home

Our house has four bedrooms and three and half bathrooms. It's warm and cozy! We have a nice sized fenced in back yard. When we have time to relax, we love to hang out in our very comfortable basement either reading or watching television.

Furry Friends

We currently have three pets that we absolutely adore - Emme is our 7 year old beagle; Toby is our 13 year old cat; and Tori is our 7 year old cat. Toby and Tori love to sleep in the sun. Emme loves to play, take walks, and eat popcorn! They all get along well and certainly add love to our lives.

Holiday Time

We love the holidays! They are spent with family – celebrating with gifts, games, and amazing meals. We both have family traditions that we hold very dear. Children will be a wonderful addition!

Religion

The cornerstone of our life is loving and serving Jesus. He has blessed us more than we deserve. We will raise our children in a way that honors Christ. Our children will know the goodness of God through prayer and through church activities.
