

Matt and Devon

Dear Birth Mother,

Thank you for taking the time to let us introduce ourselves and to consider our family for what we are sure is the biggest decision you will ever have to make. We cannot fully understand what you must be experiencing but are grateful that you are brave enough and love your child enough to consider adoption. If you choose us please know that your child will always know you and how much you love him or her. Please also know that we will do our best every day to make sure that he or she is happy, safe and loved.

We do not have any children and have long hoped to grow our family. After facing the struggle of infertility we decided that adoption was the best path for us. We are thrilled to have the opportunity to share the experience with our families and friends.

We understand that the decision you have to make is a difficult one, and whatever you decide, we wish nothing but the best for you and your child.

Adoption & Openness

We are so excited to welcome a child into our family. We see birth parents as courageous and loving and will share that with our child. Should you choose an open adoption please know that we will do our best to build an easy and comfortable relationship. We would love to be able to share photos and stories from your family, something to show that our child is lucky to have two families.

Parenting & Education

Both of us have parents who raised us to believe that hard work, honesty and being the best person you could be are some of the most important things in life. We were taught that education is very important and would love to see our child grow, learn and succeed at whatever they would like to be. We plan on sending our child to Catholic school.

Childcare

We plan on Devon staying home and we have two grandmas who are more than ready to babysit. We want our child to know that they have a family to support them in whatever they may need.

Family

We are very close to our families and see them often. Matt's parents, sister and her family live about 40 minutes away. We have 5 nieces and nephews who will be very excited to have a cousin, not to mention grandparents who would love another grand baby to spoil. Devon's family is close too. She is an only child and her parents are beyond excited to meet and spoil their first grandchild.

Faith • Hope • Love

Religion & Holidays

Matt is a practicing Catholic and Devon was not raised in a church but regularly attends mass with Matt. We spend all of our holidays with our families and do our best to find time to see both sides. Holidays with Devon's family are fairly low key, although we suspect a grandbaby will change that! Holidays with Matt's family are always a big deal and Grandma and Grandpa like to go a bit overboard!
