

Nick & Christy

We fully understand what a blessing it would be to be matched, and literally have no words for what an incredible, honorable, Loving, mature decision it is to make the choice to become a birth parent. We are in awe of your decision to do so. We are open to developing a relationship, a friendship, of open and honest communication. Whomever you choose, we Thank You for being you.

*We truly value spending time with each other,
and put family togetherness above all else.*

Adoption

We know that the bigger picture for us is adoption and cannot wait to help a child grow into the adult that they are meant to become. We knew that adoption was our path after our attempts at InVitro to help us get pregnant resulted in the loss of our twins, in two separate pregnancies.

Nick

Nick is a business owner who is loving, calm and funny. He enjoys hockey, baseball and being outdoors.

Christy

Christy is a business owner who is caring, creative and strong-willed. She enjoys photography, family time and being outdoors.

We have been married since 2004, and are looking forward to adding a child to our family.

Parenting

We look forward to raising our baby with frequent open conversations about who they are and their adoption story. We know that raising a child is a fine line between teacher and friend and believe that education is the key to the world. We will raise our child in a manner of respect first, understanding how to treat others the way you wish to be treated, and to celebrate all the cultures and diversity the world has to offer.

Our home is in a family community with a cozy backyard.

Openness

We feel like when we connect with the person we are meant to, we hope to develop a close relationship so we can be fully open with all aspects of this child's life.

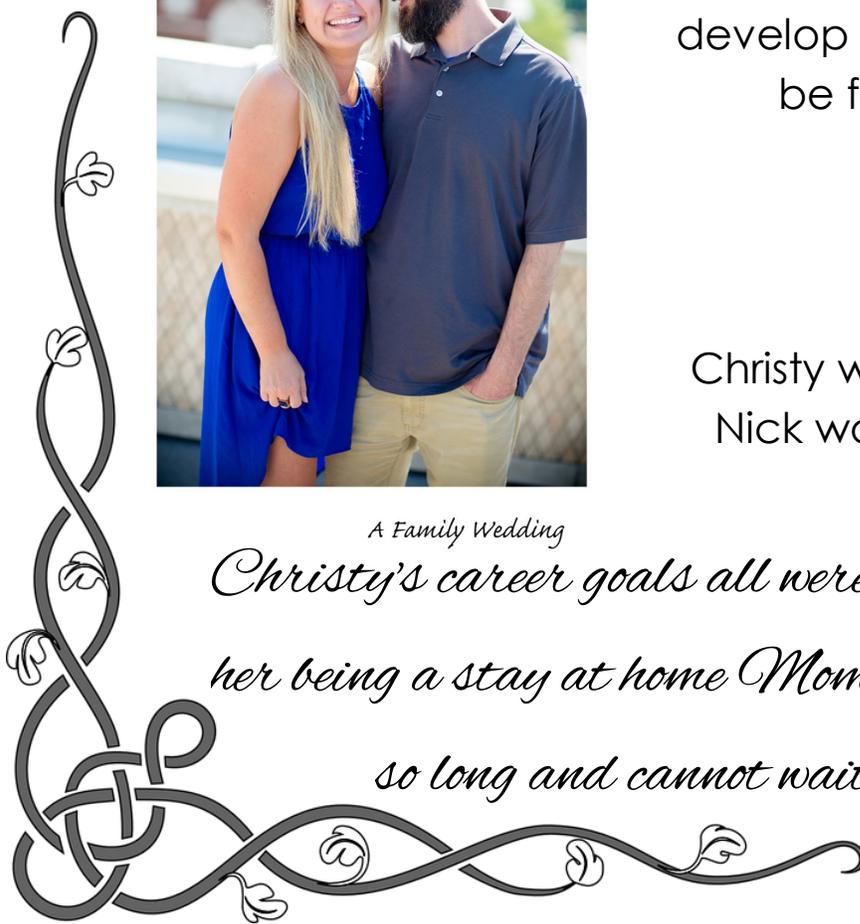

Childcare

Christy will be a stay at home Mom and Nick works in the neighborhood where we live.

A Family Wedding

Christy's career goals all were focused on her job allowing her being a stay at home Mom. We have been patient for so long and cannot wait to become parents.

Family

Splitting our time between living in the city and our weekend lake community in the country, we are constantly surrounded by our close and extended family.

Religion

Christy was raised Catholic and Nick was raised Lutheran. We both started attending public school in middle school and met each other in high school. We were married in the Catholic Church, but appreciate the traditions of all religions.

Holidays are a big deal with our families. Both of our families live in the same neighborhood so it makes celebrating with everyone very easy. We are huge fans of Halloween and have never missed the St. Patrick's Day Parade. Christy's birthday is Christmas Eve so we get to have a birthday cake along with the entire family to celebrate Christmas. We have a long list of traditions from Christmas lights night, to Memorial Day BBQs and every holiday in between.
