Hello! We are excited and anxious about the process of adoption. We have been learning so much about welcoming our future child(ren) into our home. We always imagined children would be part of our lives; however, through some health issues, having biological children is not possible.

Through prayer, reflection, and honest conversation, our hearts have been opened to adoption. Adoption has touched our family already as Jim’s mom was adopted as an infant.

We have a solid, happy marriage and often hear friends and family tell us they admire our dedication to each other. We also often hear people tell us we will be great parents. We hope this profile gives you a little glimpse of our life and joy and dedication that we will give to parenting our children.

We are open to the process of forming a unique relationship that would best benefit your baby. We want to start slow and see where it can grow. We are open to meeting you if you wish before the baby is born and we can share photos and letters.

No matter what you are thinking and feeling about this decision you are preparing to make, you are in our thoughts and prayers. We hope you will make the decision for your child that you feel most comfortable with, and we appreciate you considering us for the role of his/her lifelong parents.
Why Adoption?

We chose adoption to allow us a chance to be parents after having health issues which make biological parenthood impossible.

Parenting & Education

We view parenting as a learning experience where we will adjust to the age and emotional needs of the child with time outs, teachable moments, and redirection if discipline is needed. Parents are the first teachers, and we will teach a young child at home through reading, sounding out words, and listening to music. Later we will encourage the child to develop skills through hands on learning.

Our home

We live on a quiet street in a residential neighborhood, near other children and close to parks, playgrounds, our church, schools stores, and doctor's offices. Our home has 3 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms. The family room has plenty of space for toys!
Family Time
We spend time with extended family frequently. Rosemary's family lives nearby, and although Jim's lives a little farther, they travel to visit often. Nieces and nephews are part of Jim's extended family. Our family would welcome a child of any race and cultural background.

Religion
We are practicing Catholics and plan to raise our children in the faith. We also will encourage children to develop a relationship with God, as well as pray and learn values (ie respect, trust, helpfulness.)

Holidays
We celebrate major holidays like Easter and Christmas by going to church and spending time with family and sharing a meal. Holidays like Thanksgiving, Independence Day, and Veteran's Day have important meanings to us. We plan to incorporate holidays that celebrate our child's heritage as well.
About Jim
Personality: Reserved, loving, selfless, original, hardworking
Hobbies: Walks in nature, house & yard projects, spending time with friends and family
Occupation: Greenhouse technician

Jim made a birdhouse

About Rosemary
Personality: Thoughtful, genuine, creative, likes to try new things
Hobbies: Create art, read, make new recipes
Occupation: Therapist

A Homecooked Meal
A painting by Rosemary

Openness
We are open to meeting you if you wish before baby is born, and we can share photos and letters. We are open to forming a relationship that would best benefit your baby.

Rosemary plans to work part time and stay home with baby part time. We will employ a sitter to watch baby when we are at work.