

Drew & Jordan

Thank you for looking at our profile!

Drew is a PE teacher at a small school. He enjoys hunting, sports, and being outdoors.

Jordan is an occupational therapist who loves crafting, being outdoors, and time with family.

Dear Birth Parent

We are honored and humbled that you would take the time to review our album. We have been praying for you since this journey began, and no matter the decision that is made, we will continue to pray for peace and comfort as you continue throughout this process. We cannot imagine the difficult, but selfless decisions you have already made. This gives a wonderful insight into the love you have for your baby.

We have comfort in knowing that Our Lord has been with us with every step, and we hope this can provide you that same peace in knowing that you are not alone.

We would like to make a few promise to you. First, we promise to love your baby unconditionally and protect him or her no matter what. Next, we promise to respect our openness agreements and welcome a relationship with you. Finally, we promise to remain open with your child about his or her story and the sacrifices you made for them.

Sincerely — Drew and Jordan

Why adopt?

We understand adoption through God's word. Just as Christ adopted us into his family, we hope to bring children into ours. Adoption has always been a part of our lives through family. However, God opened this path for us after being diagnosed with severe infertility. After praying for guidance, we felt God's calling to forgo further treatments and pursue adoption. We are so excited to bring home our first child and look forward to the addition of more in the future.

We love celebrating holidays, birthdays, and special occasions with food, fun, and fellowship! Supporting our friends and family is something we enjoy, and we are blessed to have so many support us in return!

holidays

about us

Drew

Personality: Easy-going, ambitious, and supportive

Interests: Fishing, hunting, sports, and time with family

Occupation: Physical Education teacher and baseball coach

Jordan

Personality: Hardworking, loving, and faithful

Interests: Time with family, crafting, and being outdoors.

Occupation: Pediatric occupational therapist

As a Couple

We met our freshman year of college. Drew played baseball and Jordan played softball. We dated for 3 years before Drew proposed at our favorite spot by the creek. Almost a year later we got married surrounded by all our family and friends. We have been married for three years.

Our Home

We currently live in a manufactured home while we save money to build a house on a farm. Our home is located in a small town on 3 acres of land with plenty of room to play. We have three bedrooms and one room is already decorated and ready for baby to arrive.

Why adopt?

We understand adoption through God's word. Just as Christ adopted us into his family, we hope to bring children into ours. Adoption has always been a part of our lives through family. However, God opened this path for us after being diagnosed with severe infertility. After praying for guidance, we felt God's calling to forgo further treatments and pursue adoption. We are so excited to bring home our first child and look forward to the addition of more in the future.

Openness

We are eager to grow our relationship with our child's birth parents! We are open to sharing photos, exchanging letters and phone calls, as well as scheduling visits, if the relationship grows to that level.

