Robert and Amy met in choir in college and became friends. They started dating in 2010 and got married in 2012. Shortly after getting married, they moved to North Carolina for Robert to continue his education. When Robert graduated, he found a job in Missouri, and they were able to move back in 2015. They have been married for eight years and have one child. Since giving birth to Sarah, Robert and Amy have experienced infertility which has given them an opportunity to pursue their longtime desire to adopt.
Sarah is loving, compassionate, nurturing, energetic, creative, and inquisitive. She enjoys playing the piano, dancing, playing with Barbies, and learning new things. She is very excited about being a big sister! She will be in kindergarten for the 2020-2021 school year.
ROBERT

Robert grew up outside of New Orleans and moved to the Kansas City area in high school. He has an older sister named Bethany. Robert has a bachelors and masters degree in Biblical Studies and is currently pursuing a PhD in Ministry. He has been a student pastor since January 2015. In his spare time, he enjoys playing the guitar and singing, cooking, and playing games.

AMY

Amy grew up in southwest Missouri. She has a bachelors and masters degree in communication. While living in North Carolina, she worked full-time so Robert could attend school, but after he graduated and she found out she was pregnant, she became a stay-at-home mom. She enjoys working on home projects, crocheting, and reading.
Amy, Robert, and Sarah live in a family-friendly neighborhood that is full of other young families and retirees. They enjoy going for walks in their neighborhood nearly every day. The neighborhood has great sidewalks and street lights. They own a three-bedroom house with a room ready to welcome a child. They have a fenced-in backyard with plenty of room to run around. They live close to plenty of parks, churches, stores, hospitals, and restaurants.
