

JUSTIN & LAURA

Dear Birth Parent,

Thank you first and foremost for giving us the opportunity for consideration! We are so thrilled and honored to be able to have the opportunity to LOVE a child. Before we joined in marriage, we sat in our car telling God our plans for the future. In those plans were hopes to welcome a child who was fearfully and wonderfully made.

“I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvelous are thy works; and that my soul knoweth right well.” Psalms 139:14

We may never fully know the sacrifices that you have made to ensure that your child is protected, cared for and loved. We want you to know that your strength and selflessness are what we plan to share everyday of their lives. We will love them unconditionally; and wholeheartedly take care of your child by honoring the commitment of remaining open and keeping the promises that we make with you.

Love,

About Us

We met and grew up together at church since we were toddlers. We became friends and dated long distance for 5 years before Justin proposed on Christmas Day. We were married September 1, 2012 surrounded by family and friends. We laugh often and love playing board games and being complete with each other. We travel quite frequently because we enjoy a new adventure and want to see the world.

Our Philosophy on Openness

- ~Establish a relationship
  - ~Communicate
  - ~Be Honest
  - ~Maintain Contact
  - ~Respect Boundaries
- ~Listen, Observe & Implement

We plan to celebrate adoption with our child by creating a Lifebook, which will only grow over time. Our child knowing and understanding their history is very important to us. We will diligently work towards creating an atmosphere of openness and cultural awareness.

Our hope for our child is for them to have a heart full of love, surrounded by people who only want the best for them. That he or she will someday be strong in their faith, knowing that they can always trust in God. Our dream for our child is that they know no limits, will someday dare to be a leader, and can resist anything or anyone who would try to make it impossible for them to succeed in obtaining their goals.

Our House

We live in a quiet subdivision in the country with lots of kids. We built our two-story, four bedroom and three bath home in 2017. Even though we don't have a community center, we are members of the YMCA and they offer great recreational things for the whole family. The church that we attend has a wonderful children's department, geared towards leading children to Christ at an early age. Laura volunteers in the infants room and Justin volunteers with the parking lot ministry.

Our Pets: Peanut and Pebbles

Peanut is our first fur baby and he is sweet, patient and really laid back. Peanut commonly referred to as "Nut" is 5 years old and mostly black with white spots and is medium size. He doesn't enjoy the rain or thunderstorms, but loves going to the dog park. Pebbles and/or "Pigs" is the smaller of the two and has a lot of spunk and personality. She enjoys being engaged in play and doesn't like sharing her treats or toys. Pebbles is 3 years old and brown. She is absolutely fearless.

Thank you!
