Child and Family Development Center

Hilltop Child and Family Development Center is a safe and loving community for children and their families, providing quality child and family development services in North St. Louis. State licensed and nationally accredited, Hilltop prepares children for success in school through an evidenced-based “hands-on, minds-on” curriculum. Integration of parenting education and behavioral health services into our child development program provides a wrap-around approach and fills a gap for much needed, accessible services in the community.

AT HILLTOP, WE CARE AND MAKE CONNECTIONS
TO IMPROVE THE COMMUNITY WE SERVE.

At Hilltop Child & Family Development Center, each child is valued for their individual strengths and is encouraged to be self-directed in their learning by exploring and investigating their environment. This learning takes place in a warm, safe, nurturing and stimulating atmosphere. Hilltop invites and values parental visits or volunteering in the classroom or on special occasions. Furthermore, Hilltop provides support to families through:

- A unique wrap-around approach to child and family development
- Specialized learning plans for children based on their individual needs
- Physical and development diagnostic screenings
- Referrals to other resources when necessary
- Home visits for Head Start and Early Head Start families
- Parent-Teacher conferences
