

Tara & Isla

Dear Birth Parents,

Thank you for taking the time to learn more about my family and allowing me to introduce myself. I know this is likely a confusing time for you as you are working to figure out the best plan for you and your baby. I am grateful that you have so much love for your child that you are considering an adoption plan for him/her. I hope and pray that you feel love and support as you navigate this journey. I hope that as you go through this book you can see the love that I have for my family, my passion for adoption, and the love I have to give your child.

Know this, I think of you. I think of you and the choices before you and feel nothing but incredible respect for this gift you are thinking of offering a family like ours. I not only think of the choices you have to make, but how you will make them. You are an inspiration to me. You are brave, strong, and an incredibly courageous person.

With love,
Tara

love and joy

A little about Tara

Hi I'm Tara! I'm the proud mommy to my three year old daughter, Isla. Isla came to me through adoption. We share a home with my mom (Grammy Debbie), my sister (Shannon), and my nephew (Spencer). I enjoy spending time with my friends and family. I have a close group of friends many of them have young children.

I have an Associates in Early Childhood Education and a Bachelors Degree in Child and Family Development. I work at an Early Childhood Center and I have the luxury to bring Isla and my future child with me to the center. It gives me great comfort knowing my child is just down the hall and I can step away from my desk to do a feeding, or join in on a story time in the classroom.

A Little About Isla...

Isla just turned three in February, 2021. She is very energetic. Isla has a great sense of humor and is so smart. Isla loves to read books, she can spend countless hours creating with playdoh, and Barbies are her new favorite toy. Isla enjoys going to school and weekly dance class.

Isla came into my life through adoption. She is mixed races (Caucasian and African American). Isla's birth mom made an adoption plan just before she was born. Isla's birth family and I stay in touch via text. We exchange pictures and videos.

Our neighborhood has a great mix of bi-racial families. We are active with the local Boys and Girls Club which is within walking distance of our home. In addition to living in a diverse community my extended family represents diversity too. I will make sure that your child knows how much they are loved and you will always be reflected in a positive light. You are their beginning and I would love to share their life with you.
