Dear Birth Mother

Our hearts are full to have you view our profile. We want you to know how much it means to us, and we are incredibly thankful. I know we haven't met yet, but we want you to know how brave you are. This is an incredible thing and so selfless. We are here for you during this journey, and know this is just the beginning of a beautiful thing. As you look through our album we hope you get a sense for who we are, the caring family we have embracing this process, and the love we have to welcome a child and their journey into our lives.

Reason for adopting

Growing our family and becoming parents has been something we knew we wanted very early on in our relationship. However, several challenges and infertility trials later, we knew this wouldn't happen in a traditional sense. After a lot of discussion and prayer we knew that the family we aspired to have out-weighed the challenges. Not only did adoption align with our morals and values, it has allowed us to step into a very special process.

Philosophy of Openness

We know that openness is a very important part of the adoption journey. The level of openness is something we believe will be evolving. Most importantly, finding something we are all open to is our main goal.

We are open to sharing updates and allowing our future child to embrace their roots. We want to allow the possibility for visits and communication. This is something we believe is valuable and takes part in providing an open home and allowing our child to ask questions and learn about themselves.

Beau

If Taylor has to describe Beau in three words it would be... consistent, loving, and logical

In his free time Beau loves tinkering with his old cars, scenic drives, spending time with the horses, or anything outdoors.

Beau is a Environmental Health and Safety Manager, and is passionate about what he does.

Taylor

If Beau had to describe Taylor in three words it would be... Intentional, caring, and understanding.

In her free time she loves spending time with her animals, reading, planting flowers, trying new Mexican restaurants and an occasional shopping trip.

Taylor is a Human Resources Business Partner. She absolutely loves what she does!

Our Home

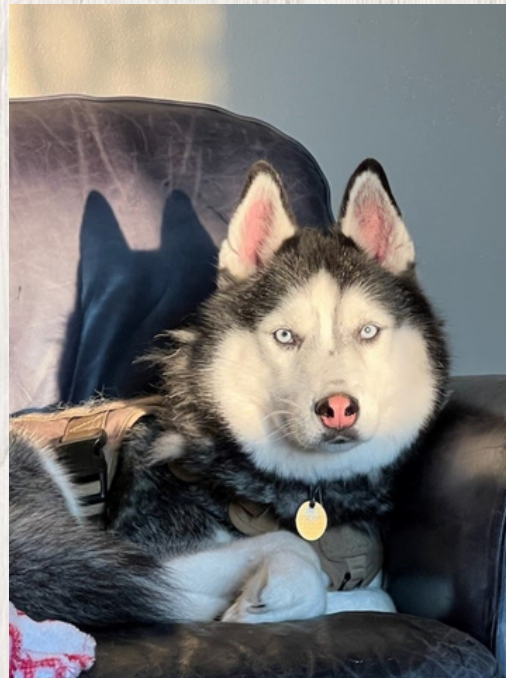

We live in a ranch style home on 5 acres. There is plenty of yard space, and lots of things to explore. Flowers and berries in the summer months, beautiful fall leaves, and plenty of space for a snow man in the winter. Our home is located outside of town in a rural area, but still close to schools, restaurants, conservation areas, and larger cities.

Furry Friends

We have two horses Quinny and Johnny. Two dogs Cricket Bug and Blue, and our two cats Kibbles and Bits.

Our extended family, just down the road, also has a farm with lots of cows to visit.

Thank you!

We thank you for taking the time to read our profile. We hope you got to see a little bit about who we are, our home, and see that we are embracing this journey with open arms.

The decision you are making is not an easy one. We thank you for being brave and considering us to be apart of your story.

We hope to meet you soon.
