

ZACH and EMMA

DEAR EXPECTANT PARENT,

First of all, thank you for taking the time to learn more about our family. You have been on our minds often and we have so much respect for you and the incredibly hard, but courageous, decision you're considering making. While we don't know what it feels like to walk in your shoes, we do know it takes deep selflessness and love to think about adoption as a way to give your child the life you want for them.

Should you choose adoption for your child, we would be honored if you would consider us as prospective adoptive parents. We hope you see a glimpse of our hearts in the pages ahead and also know that this is just the beginning of a relationship we hope to have with you.

We will be praying for you as you continue to consider this decision and that, whatever choice you end up making, it's the very best one for you and your child.

ABOUT US

When we met almost six years ago we connected instantly and haven't spent many days apart since. We currently live in mid-Missouri and enjoy keeping life pretty simple. We both have jobs we're passionate about but try to balance work and home life well. Some of our favorite activities are being outside (we take our dog for a walk every night), finding a good show or movie to watch together, cooking, trying new restaurants, going to sporting events, and traveling. We can't wait to turn our trips into family vacations! We've known since we got married that adoption was something God placed on our hearts and are excited to grow our family in this way.

EMMA

What Emma says about Zach...

Zach is the definition of glass half full and lights up any room that he's in. He is positive, joyful, and encouraging. He's the guy who's always checking on those around him and has been my rock in some of my hardest moments. I have no doubt his playful spirit, consistency, and intentionality will make him an amazing dad.

What Zach says about Emma...

Emma is one of the most caring people I know and is always finding ways to make people feel seen and comfortable whenever she interacts with them. She wants the best for other people and always provides a listening ear to her family and friends. I believe her loving nature and desire to encourage others, while being confident in who she is, will make her a fantastic mom.

OUR HOME

We own a 3 bedroom (+ an office), 2 bathroom home with a good sized fenced in backyard. We live in neighborhood with lots of kids, sidewalks, and a neighborhood pool. One of our favorite things about where we live is the beautiful sunsets. Our overall goal is for our home to be cozy and inviting for our family and friends.

OUR PET, FINN

We have one "furbaby", Finn, who is a five year old goldendoodle. He's goofy and really loves his people.

THANK YOU!

Thank you, again, for taking the time to learn more about our family and our life. It means so much to us that you would consider us as potential adoptive parents for your child. We know the decision you're considering making is one made out of love and wanting the very best for your child.

We hope you can see that we have a warm and loving home and community ready and excited to welcome a child into our home and hearts. Should you decide to go on this journey with us we look forward to getting to know you better and working together to best support your child. We'll be thinking about and praying for you as you make your decision, whatever it may be.
